

ANGEL HEADED HIP HOP

What can you tell the readers about our album?

I remember coming to your home studio to do an intro for another album. We also recorded a song called "The Spiritual Kid" which is now on iTunes along with The "Three Men in a Boat" remix with Howard Marks, and out of these recordings over a two and a half year period River Styx and I developed an album. It is being mixed at the moment and will be out very soon.

END.....Look out for Angel Headed Hip Hop: Tales from the Grove

Platform Magazine review - Three Men in a Boat (River Styx remix)

River Styx remixes this Artifact classic into an entrancing jazzy urban trip. Originally on the '30 years of Counter Culture' Album' 3 Men in a boat brings together Howard Marks & Lee Harris; both legends in thier respective fields, in a stoned session of ephinany and wisdom which deals with at one point or another; terrorism, racism, poverty and morality

Vipers lair on the Angel Headed
Hip Hop set at
The Psychedelic Circus 2007

The Angel Headed Hip Hop set was an interesting mix of free flow spoken word lyrics over the top of scratch and Hip Hop beats, a sort of early Pink Floyd guitar drone with freaky bits, and a wandering base line. It's an intriguing aural trip I can best describe as Jazz meets trance and Hip Hop on acid.
